ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This Dissertation would never have been possible without the valuable support given by many, to whom I am indebted and thus sincerely acknowledge.

My gratitude is extended to Prof. Lakshman Alwis (Professor of Architecture), Prof. Nimal De Silva (Dean, Dept. of Architecture), who guided me at the initial stages of this study.

Dr. S.Manawadu, sixth year master, at present the Head, (Dept. of Architecture), for making background at the initial stages to carryout this particular study.

Archt. Vidura S. Nammuni, senior lecturer and fifth year master for preparing me by giving the guidance and background knowledge throughout the year.

Dr. R. Emmanuel, senior lecturer and the coordinator of postgraduate architecture dissertations, for the guidance and incisive comments to make this a success.

Dr. R. Dayaratne, Senior Lecturer in Architecture and; social and Behavioral studies, for filling me with interesting aspects of architecture, particularly the human settlements.

To my Tutor, Archt. Prasanna Kulathilake for his words of continue encouragement in my time of despair, his incisive comments, patience and inspiration given to me. I am deeply indebted to him for all his help and appreciate the time and effort extended to me carrying out my research.

Dr. Mrs. Herath, Senior Lecturer, Department of Social Sciences, University of Colombo, for the guidance, incisive comments, patience and inspiration given to me, and directing me towards many aspects of this study.

Mr. M.A.P.Senanayake, Senior lecturer, Department of Town and Country Planning, University of Moratuwa, for the Valuable comments at the beginning of this study.

I would like to offer my deep gratitude to my special friend, Amali for her help in field works, computer editing, preparation of sketches and for numerous advices, to make this research a success. I would never have reach this level without her enormous support.

Also special thank would go to my friends, Sarana, Ravi and Sitparan who helped me in taking photographs and sharing ideas.

My Case studies would not have been successful, without the kind and cooperative help of the Rahumathpurama and Aluthgama villagers, who shared their lives and experiences with me.

Finally, there are two persons without whom this Dissertation may never have been written. My most humble gratitude goes to my parents who have consistently been my source of encouragement throughout my life.

A.A.S.N. Ariyahilake.
