Acknowledgement

This research would have been incomplete if not for the various efforts and involvement put forward by number of people. Therefore I would like to take this opportunity to thank some special people who I am indebted to acknowledge and I am indeed grateful for the immense support provided by them.

First and foremost, I would like to thank Dr.Vathsala Wickramasinghe, my research supervisor, for her thorough guidance, outstanding support, motivation, invaluable feedbacks and encouragement given throughout the research. Without you, it would be a hard task to complete the research successfully within the given time frame.

I owe my deepest gratitude to Kasun, for the great support and never ending encouragement given to me, specially during my hard times, in order to accomplish the research, as well as the MBA program in every manner. Also I thank to all my MBA colleagues, for their utmost help provided to me during the research and throughout this MBA program.

My special thanks to all the respondents who participated in the survey by giving their time apart from their busy schedule to assist me to forward with the research.

Also I sincerely acknowledge to Saheeka for her indeed help by proof reading the dissertation and make corrections within a limited time span.

I thank to academic staff of MOT department of University of Moratuwa and also to members of the non-academic staff, specially to Ruwan and Sampath for the immense support and help given, not only during the research period, but since MBA program started.

My project managers and team mates are thanked by me, for facilitating me to manage the office and research work simultaneously.

Last but not least , very special thanks to my loving parents, for their unique and non-equivalent support, encouragement and more over, invaluable patience showed to me at all the times, not only during the research or MBA, but throughout my life.

Again I am thanking to all people who were behind my success on completing this research and whole MBA program as well.

Ruvini Widyaratne.
