This particular dissertation, resulted, due to many relationships with various personnel, a pat on the shoulder, a gesture of encouragement, a word of advice, a book lent, a photograph produced, a phone call, a tip, a spark of an idea ...

Above all, my greatest thanks are especially extended to Mr. Vidura Sri Nammuni, senior lecturer, faculty of architecture, in terms of having faith in the particular dissertation topic proposal, advice extended on structure of the study, clues tips, provision of literary criticisms, criticism on text and offering editorial suggestions, constant remarks on time limit and above all his patience on my learning method.

I am very grateful to Mr. Vijitha Basnayake for his valid advice on many possibilities on the subject and setting me in track and provision of a list of literary references.

I am indebted to Dr. L.S.R.Perera in approval - and thus encouragement - on the subject area.

My sincere thanks to Prof. Nimal De Silva for his warning on the topic proposal which set me on guard and be careful not to run off track.

My warm gratitude is for my father in nourishing me with a wonderful collection of books on literature , sympathetic encouragement, mother for provision of knowledge on Sinhala poetry and the warm feeling of the pat of a sister in encouragement. Nalaka.....Nilantha....Keerthi....I am speechless in gratitude.

My warm thanks are extended to Namal for his concern, advice, clues, and most of all helping me in typing the text, and Nilanthi, the shadow behind him, and Ishika for the provision of her computer.
