Alternative Design of a Geo Textile Weaving Machine

Shanaka Gayan Appuhamy

Abstract

Our objective of this project is to replace the manual processes which are used to produce geo textiles by a cost effective, reliable, automated geo textile producing machine with a cross rope moving mechanism, which will reduce the cost of production of geo textiles while increasing the overall production of this value added product.