

LE/D/27/1998

THE SRI LANKAN RURAL VERNACULAR:

An Examination of the changing pattern of houses with special reference to Matale District

Dissertation presented to the Faculty of Architecture
University of Moratuwa

University of Moratuwa, Sri Lanka.
Electronic Theses & Dissertations
www.lib.mrt.ac.lk

For the M.Sc (Arch.) Final Examination

ප්‍රථමකාලය
මොරටුව විශ්ව විද්‍යාලය, ශ්‍රී ලංකාව
මොරටුව.

K. M. S. FERNANDO
Faculty of Architecture
University of Moratuwa
Sri Lanka

July 1998

69295

UM
Thesis
coll.

72"98"
728.1

69295

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I kneel down with gratitude before many, who criticised, argued, advised, guided and encouraged me throughout in making this a success.

- * Prof. Nimal de Silva, Head, Dept. of Architecture, for many eye opening discussions I had with him and for valuable advise given to at the initial stages.
- * Dr. Ranjith Dayaratne, Senior Lecturer, Dept. of Architecture, for giving me valuable advice and hints during the draft stages to make this a success and for correcting the draft.
- * Mr. Vidura Sri Nammuni and Mr. V. Basnayake, Senior Lecturers, Dept. of Architecture, for lengthy discussions and inspiration given to me when I needed it most.
- * Dr. S. Manawadu, Senior Lecturer, Dept. of Architecture, for giving me necessary nourishment, advice, guidance and valuable comments.
- * Mr. R. Alahakoon, (Year Master) Senior Lecturer, Dept. of Architecture for his assistance.
- * Mrs. Basnayake, Mr & Mrs. Kumarasinghe, Grama Niladari and all the villagers of Dullewa Village, Mrs. Kobbekaduwa, Mrs. Aluvihare and Mrs. Wegodapola for providing me with necessary data, discussions and granting permission to photograph their houses.
- * Mr & Mrs R. Tillakasekera and Family for providing all the facilities during my stay at Matale.
- * My dear friends Chamil, Chaminda, Mayura, Indralal and Preethika and all others, whom have become a source of help, assistance and encouragement at my needy moments.
- * Last but not least, my dearest parents, who were like my shadow, ready to help me at a moment of notice be it night or day, for their continuous guidance, encouragement and blessings given at all times.

CONTENTS

Acknowledgement

Contents

List of illustrations

Introduction

i - iv

Observation

Impact

Cause

Intention of study

Methodology

Limitation

CHAPTER ONE : THE VERNACULAR ARCHITECTURE AND HOUSE FORM

1 - 15

1.1	The vernacular tradition	1
1.1.1	Characteristics of vernacular tradition	3
1.2	Architecture as an evolutionary process	4
1.2.1	Formation of rural vernacular architecture (from primitive to vernacular)	5
1.3	The house form and its importance	8
1.3.1	Forces which influenced the house form	8
1.3.1.1	Socio cultural factors	9
	i Society
	a) Man and family
	b) House and society
	ii Caste and family
	iii Culture
1.3.1.2	Climate	12
1.3.1.3	Materials/ construction and technology	14
1.3.1.4	Economy	15

University of Kelaniya, Sri Lanka.
Electronic Journals & e-Resources
www.lib.mil.lk

“THE PAST LIVES IN THE PRESENT
PRESENT IN THE FUTURE,
LINKING THE DEAD PAST,
WITH UNBORN FUTURE”

(Srinivasan, K.)

ILLUSTRATIONS

Fig. No.	Title
1	Dwellings of Marsh Arabs
2	The ceremonial space of Anazazi Indians
3	Primitive house
4	Different primitive forms of different cultures
5	Relationship between family and society
6	Igloo and Tepee houses
7	Change of the house form of different castes ( monogamous and polygamous situation )
8	Different house forms in different cultures
9	House forms differ with climate – Foreign
10	Different house forms varying with climatic conditions in Sri Lanka
11	Different house forms using same materials
12	Economic influence in housing
13	Section – a traditional dwelling
14	Plinth of a traditional rural house
15	Typical traditional thatched roof
16	Small openings provide better quality light
17	Rural vernacular house
18	Basic unit of a vernacular house( plan and section )
19	Two roomed, two verandah house ( plan and section )
20	Simple courtyard house ( Yeomans house )
21	Plan of a Yeomans house
22	Plan of a Feudals house
23	Dutch influenced vernacular house
24	British influenced vernacular house
25	British influenced vernacular house – imposed western forms without Responding to the building traditions of Sri Lanka
26	Location of the house
27	Plan of old house. ( Muthubanda )
28	Section - of the old house
29	Elevation of the old house

30	Plan of the new house ( Basnayake )
31	Section - of the new house ( Basnayake )
32	Front elevation of the new house ( Basnayake )
33	Entrance porch
34	Old part of the house is out of traditional materials
35	Raised plinth of the old house
36	Low plinth and large windows of the new house
37	Existing portion of the old house, with straw thatched roof and small openings
38	Windows at about 4'0" above the ground
39	Ventilation pattern of the old and new house
40	Plan of house ( Dullewa Walauwwa )
41	Section - of the house ( Dullewa Walauwwa )
42	Elevation of the house ( Dullewa Walauwwa )
43	G.I. sheet roof of the new construction
44	Wee polanage ( winnowing house )
45	Carved wooden column supports the roof
46	The half wall facing meda midula
47	Decorative small windows
48	Heavy timber roof structure
49	Ornamental doors with brass locks
50	Hinge of the door
51	Ventilation pattern of the house
52	Plan of the house ( Aluvihre Walauwwa )
53	Section - of the house ( Aluvihare Walauwwa )
54	Elevation - of the house ( Aluvihare Walauwwa )
55	Stone steps lead from compound to the entrance
56	Round column in stone and clay motar ( facing the courtyard )
57	Ventilation pattern of the house
58	Plan of the old house ( S. Kumarasinghe )
59	Section - of the old house( S. Kumarasinghe )
60	Elevation of the old house ( S. Kumarasinghe )
61	Plan of the new house ( P. Kumarasinghe )
62	Section - of the new house ( P. Kumarasinghe )

- 63 Elevation of the new house
- 64 Courtyard still remaining (left side part of the old house)
- 65 Extention to the old house can be used as an annex
- 66 Part of the old house (with raised plinth, timber doors & windows and Roof is replaced by G.I. sheets)
- 67 Grills are fitted onto windows for extra security
- 68 Ventilation pattern of houses
- 69 Plan - of the house (Wegodapola)
- 70 Section - of the house (Wegodapola)
- 71 Elevation - of the house (Wegodapola)
- 72 Round columns facing the courtyard
- 73 New addition of carport does not destroy the old form
- 74 Ventilation pattern
- 75 Plan - of the house (Weligala Walauwwa)
- 76 Section - of the house (Weligala Walauwwa)
- 77 Front elevation – of the house (Weligala Walauwwa)
- 78 Side elevation – of the house (Weligala Walauwwa)
- 79 Kitchen area (notice the roof covered with G.I. roofing sheets)
- 80 Ventilation pattern
- 81 Change of house forms depending on extended family units
- 82 Old atuwa converted to a lounge (note the low head clearance)
- 83 The earliest form of vernacular houses used environment friendly Materials for construction
- 84 Dullewa Walauwwa (environment friendly materials were used here for construction)
- 85 Courtyards once kept opened are obstructed by wooden trellis work
- 85A How sunlight passes through windows
- 86 Orientation of a building
- 87 Pada bedima
- 88 Inspiration drawn from temples is seen here